

Please do not allow banks to contact previous customers who are registered on the state's no-call list. Keep the no-call list rules the same as they are now.